

Hey, FCC...I pay for this service. You need to stay out of what I pay for, that's between me and the service. You should have you hands full policing the public airways where kids can access things they should not be hearing.